LARGO, FL -- If you are engaged and looking for a beautiful place to tie the knot on Valentines day, then look no further.

The Pinellas County Clerk of the Court will be hosting a group Valentines Day wedding ceremony at the Florida Botanical Gardens in Largo.

This is the 4th year the clerk's office is hosting the event. Normally they are closed on Sundays but they've decided since romance doesn't take a day off, they won't either.

The clerk's office has also decided to waive their normal $30 fee to perform marriages but their standard marriage license fees will still apply.

Last year, 40 couples simultaneously exchanged vows in the one marriage ceremony. Clerk officials say the sculptures, mosaic artwork, topiary and rose gardens come together to create a breathtaking setting nestled right in the heart of Pinellas County.

The number of couples may be limited due to space and marriage licenses must be applied for between December 21, 2009 and February 11, 2010 in order to participate in the February 14th wedding date.

In order to participate, couples must sign up at any clerk's office by Monday, February 8, 2010.

The ceremony will take place at 2 p.m. in the Wedding Garden at the Florida Botanical Gardens which is located at 12520 Ulmerton Road in Largo.

For more information regarding the process and locations to apply for a marriage license, contact Recording Services at 727-464-3008, or visit the Clerk's website at www.mypinellasclerk.org.
